Through workshops, fathers learn the important role they play in their children lives, how to be active and contribute positively to their children's well being.

Workshop graduates receive father-to-father mentoring that provide a positive male mentor who encourages and supports participants to re-connect and stay connected with their children.

Monthly activities are planned for dads, their children and mentors along with peer support.

Fees are based on residence and/or referral status, sliding scale available to those who qualify. Participants may also qualify for Case Management services.
