

School Resource Counseling Service

This service provides school districts a variety of different counseling services assisting students experiencing social, emotional, behavioral, family or academic problems.

All services are tailored to meet each district's distinct need and may include:

- individual counseling
(Problem solving or improving with self esteem)
- group counseling
(Helping students manage their behavior or social skills in group settings)
- case management
(Assisting school officials with referrals and resources)
- classroom guidance
(Classroom lessons or presentations)
- family therapy sessions
- Teacher consultation
(Managing classroom behavior).
