...is a voluntary program aimed at helping couples build relationship skills while supporting them as parents during their new child's most rapid and significant developmental phase of life, Pre-Natal to age three.

Services are available at no charge to Clay and Platte county residents who are Unwed and are expectant parents or who have a child less than three months old.

Couple's Retreats are designed to assist committed couples improve their child's well-being by providing the skills and information needed to improve the quality and stability of their relationships, as well as promoting healthy child growth and development through in home visitation, increasing Healthy Families in our community.

Studies show...healthy marriages provide amazing benefits for children!
